

For Stephanie Sulzbach

Psalm for Palm Sunday

Psalm 31: 9-16, LP

Lowell Prescott

Piano

$\text{♩} = 90$  Moderato

6

Cantor

Have pi - ty on me, Lord, for I am in deep need; My 11

eyes weak-en with tears, and my bo - dy chills with grief, chills with 15

All

grief. Have pi - ty on me, O Lord.

PLEASE NOTE: This piece may be sung either as a solo, with the vocalist singing all segments, or as a responsive psalm, with the assembly joining on the refrains.

20 Cantor

My life has_ known sor - row, my years have seen des - pair; My bo - dy fades a - way, — weak, — weak — to its

25

8va-

30 All Cantor

bones. — My life has known — sor - row. With 35

en - e - mies ev - 'ry - where, I am re - viled. Ev - 'ry face turns and flees, and flees from

40 All Cantor

me. My en - e - mies ev - 'ry - where. I am like the dead: for - got - ten, for - got - ten, thrown a - way like bro - ken shards, with - out an - y

46

52 All Cantor

use. For - got - ten like the dead. But I have 57

trust in you, O lord. You are my God, and my 62

All

life is yours, my life is ev - er yours. My life is ev - - - er

68

Cantor

yours. De - liv - er me from my sor - rows. Shine your face u - pon your

72

All

ser - vant. Save me in your bound - less love. O save me in your bound-less love.

77